The Beijing Sitong Bridge protest was a political protest in the People's Republic of China during the prelude to the 20th National Congress of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP).

On the morning of 13 October 2022, a protestor demonstrated against CCP general secretary Xi Jinping's cult of personality, dictatorship, human rights violations, strengthening of censorship, seeking of leadership for life and implementation of the zero-COVID policy by hanging banners and burning tires on Sitong Bridge [zh] (Chinese: 四通桥; pinyin: Sìtōng Qiáo) in Haidian District, Beijing.
